

Privacy Policy

We do not share personal information with third parties. Our Privacy Policy is designed to help you understand how we collect and use the personal information you provide to us and to help you make an informed decision when using our site.

Information We Collect

When you visit our Web site you may provide us with two types of information: personal information you knowingly choose to disclose that is collected on an individual basis and Web site use information collected on an aggregate basis as you and others browse our Web site.

Information You Chose to Provide Us

Registration (Contact us)

If you specifically provide us information about yourself including name, email address and phone number when you opt in for our newsletter or alerts or asked us to contact you regarding our services. You may also provide additional comments on how you see us servicing your needs and interests.

Email

If you choose to correspond with us through email, we may retain the content of your email messages together with your email address and our responses.

Web Site Use

Our website utilizes a standard technology called cookies and web server logs to collect information about how our website is used. Information gathered through cookies and web server logs may include the date and time of visits, the pages viewed, time spent at and pages visited. Our company and partners may use this information to give us statistics on our ads and promotions.

How Do We Use The Information?

In general, we use personal information for purposes of managing and expanding our business activities, methods, promotions and most importantly customer service. Occasionally, we may also use the information we collect to notify you about important changes, updates, new services and special offers that may be valuable to you. You may notify us at any time if you do not wish to receive these offers by emailing us at mail@creditservicesofelpaso.com

Cookies?

Cookies are messages that web servers pass to your web browser when you visit Internet sites. Your browser stores each message in a small file, called cookie.txt. When you request another page from the server, your browser sends the cookie back to the server. These files typically contain information about your visit to the web page, as well as any information you've volunteered, such as your name and interests.

Use of Information We Collect from Cookies?

When you visit our site, the site uses its cookies to differentiate you from other individuals. In some cases, we also use cookies to prevent you from seeing unnecessary advertisements or requiring you to log in more than is necessary for security. Cookies also allow us to calculate the total number of people visiting our website and gives us information about your visit. This helps us gather feedback in order to constantly improve your experience. Cookies do not allow us to gather any personal information about you and we do not generally store any personal information that you provided to us in your cookies.

Sharing Information

Unless you specifically subscribe and agree, we will not share any of your information with third parties for marketing purposes.

How Do We Secure Information Transmissions?

Any information is stored on our secure server with the industry standard SSL certificate to encrypt your data and protect it. Email correspondence that goes back and forth from us to you is not secure unless both parties have a security certificate when they send the email. Our company does not transmit emails with a security certificate and does not allow transmittal of sensitive information through email. We encourage all sensitive information transmissions to take place via client portal.

Disclosures

We may disclose your personal information if required to do so by law or subpoena or if we believe that such action is necessary to (a) conform to the law or comply with legal process served on us or Affiliated Parties; (b) protect and defend our rights and property, the Site, the users of the Site, and/or our Affiliated Parties; (c) act under circumstances to protect the safety of users of the Site, ourselves, or third parties.

Website Links?

We are not responsible for the practices employed by website links to or from our website nor the information or content contained. Often links to other websites are provided solely as information on topics that may be useful to the users of our website. Once you leave our website our privacy policy is no longer in effect.

Consent

By using our website, you consent to our Privacy Policy. If we change our privacy policy we will update it to keep you informed.
